7th Congress of Asian Society for Child and Adolescent Psychiatry & Allied Professions and 12th Biennial Conference of Indian Association for Child and Adolescent Mental Health

September 25-28th, 2013 ● New Delhi India

THEME
Bridging the Gap in Child Mental Health: Opportunities and Innovations
Dear Colleagues,

It gives us immense pleasure to invite you to the forthcoming event of the 7th Congress of Asian Society for Child and Adolescent Psychiatry & Allied Professions & 12th Biennial Conference of the Indian Association for Child and Adolescent Mental Health, in New Delhi, India on Sept. 25-28, 2013.

India is home to about half a billion children and adolescents, living in a multi-religious, multicultural society, in the backdrop of rich cultural heritage and civilization. Historically a land of saints and sages, India of today, provides opportunities for religious and cultural tourism; entrepreneurship; scientific explorations and innovations; human capital maneuverings; spiritual thought; and philosophy.

India beckons for an interaction and intercourse in every aspect of mind and mental health focusing on the most crucial phase of human life that is childhood.

Mark your dates Sept 25-28, 2013 to engage with mental health of children and adolescents in New Delhi, India.

We are preparing to welcome you and host you with a feast of science and culture.
